UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF OREGON

EUGENE DIVISION

TRINITY COMPOUNDING
PHARMACY, INC. dba BROADWAY
APOTHECARY, an Oregon corporation;

Case No. 6:14-cv-00800-AA

Plaintiff,

STIPULATED JUDGMENT

v.

STACIA GREEN;

Defendant.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on the parties' Stipulated Motion for Entry of Judgment. Based upon that motion, and the Court being fully advised,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. For a period of two years from March 18, 2014, Defendant's last date of employment with Plaintiff, Defendant and those in active concert or participation with her who receive actual notice of this Order through personal service or otherwise, are enjoined from:

(a) Interfering with the relationships of Plaintiff with any of its employees, agents, representatives, or independent contractors;

(b) Directly or indirectly diverting or attempting to divert from Plaintiff any prescription compounded medication business in which Plaintiff was actively engaged during the term of Defendant's employment with Plaintiff;

(c) Interfering with the relationships of Plaintiff with its customers or patients;

(d) Directly or indirectly contacting, soliciting, inducing or attempting to contact, solicit, or induce, or accepting any business from, any customer or referral source of Plaintiff who was a customer or referral source of Plaintiff's at any time during Defendant's employment with Plaintiff. For purposes of this Stipulated Judgment, "referral source" means any health care provider, office, clinic or facility, and their employees, agents and representatives, who have written prescriptions for, or in any other manner have referred prescription compounded medication business to, Plaintiff; and

(e) Using and/or disclosing Plaintiff's Confidential Information.

2. Defendant and those in active concert or participation with her who receive actual notice of this Stipulated Judgment through personal service or otherwise, are required to immediately return to Plaintiff all Confidential Information and other property of Plaintiff that is within their possession, custody, or control.

3. Following entry of this Stipulated Judgment, the Court will retain personal jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter jurisdiction of this action for purposes of interpreting and enforcing the terms of this Stipulated Judgment, including but not limited to determining whether a violation of this Stipulated Judgment has occurred and awarding any relief that may be appropriate as a result of any such violation. For purposes of this Stipulated Judgment, appropriate relief in the event of a violation shall include reinstitution of the claims and counterclaims set forth in Section 4. of this Stipulated Judgment.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this Stipulated Judgment, all claims and counterclaims that arise out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of this action are dismissed with prejudice.

5. No costs or attorney's fees are awarded to any party.

6. No security shall be required as a condition to entry of this Stipulated Judgment.
